

Study Abroad: Proposed study plan

Office of the Registrar | Student Recruitment

The proposed study plan helps you look at the courses offered at UVic and see how they'll fit in with your degree studies. You should review your plan with your program adviser, and make sure that you meet course prerequisites.

- Email studyabroad@uvic.ca to request a list of recommended undergraduate courses for short-term international students.
- Consult the academic timetable to see what courses are currently available, and the academic calendar for course descriptions and requirements.

Send your proposed study plan to studyabroad@uvic.ca, along with your other supplemental information.

Course information

Ask your adviser how many courses/credits you need to take.

- Most UVic students take 3-5 courses per term.
- Most UVic courses are equivalent to approximately 6 ECTS credits.

You can include up to eight courses in your proposed study plan, so that you'll have options if some aren't available or have conflicting class schedules. This enables you to quickly make adjustments when you register for courses.
